

Discussion Director

Your job is to guide the group discussion and keep everyone on task. You should come up with at least five questions to discuss with your group.

Summarizer

Your job is to summarize the text
that has been assigned
for your group to read.
Share your summary
with your group.

Vivid Visualizer

Your job is to pick a passage from your assigned text and visualize it. Draw what you visualize. Share your drawing with your group.

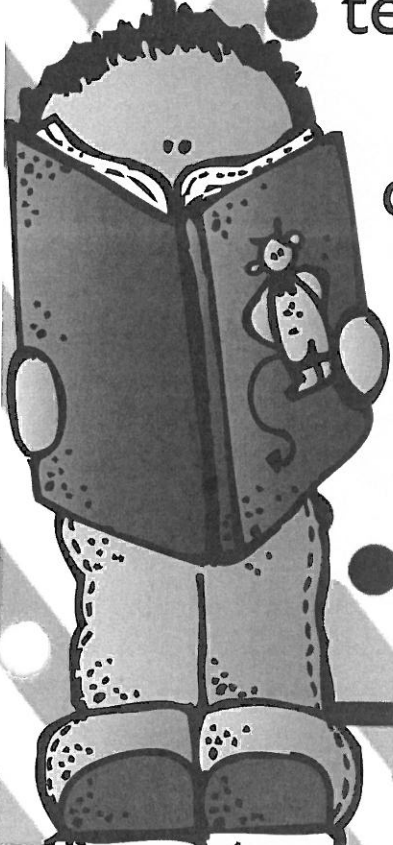

Passage Master

Your job is to pick a at least three passages from your assigned text that you think are important. Write down the passages and share them with your group. Tell why you picked those passages.

Clever Connector

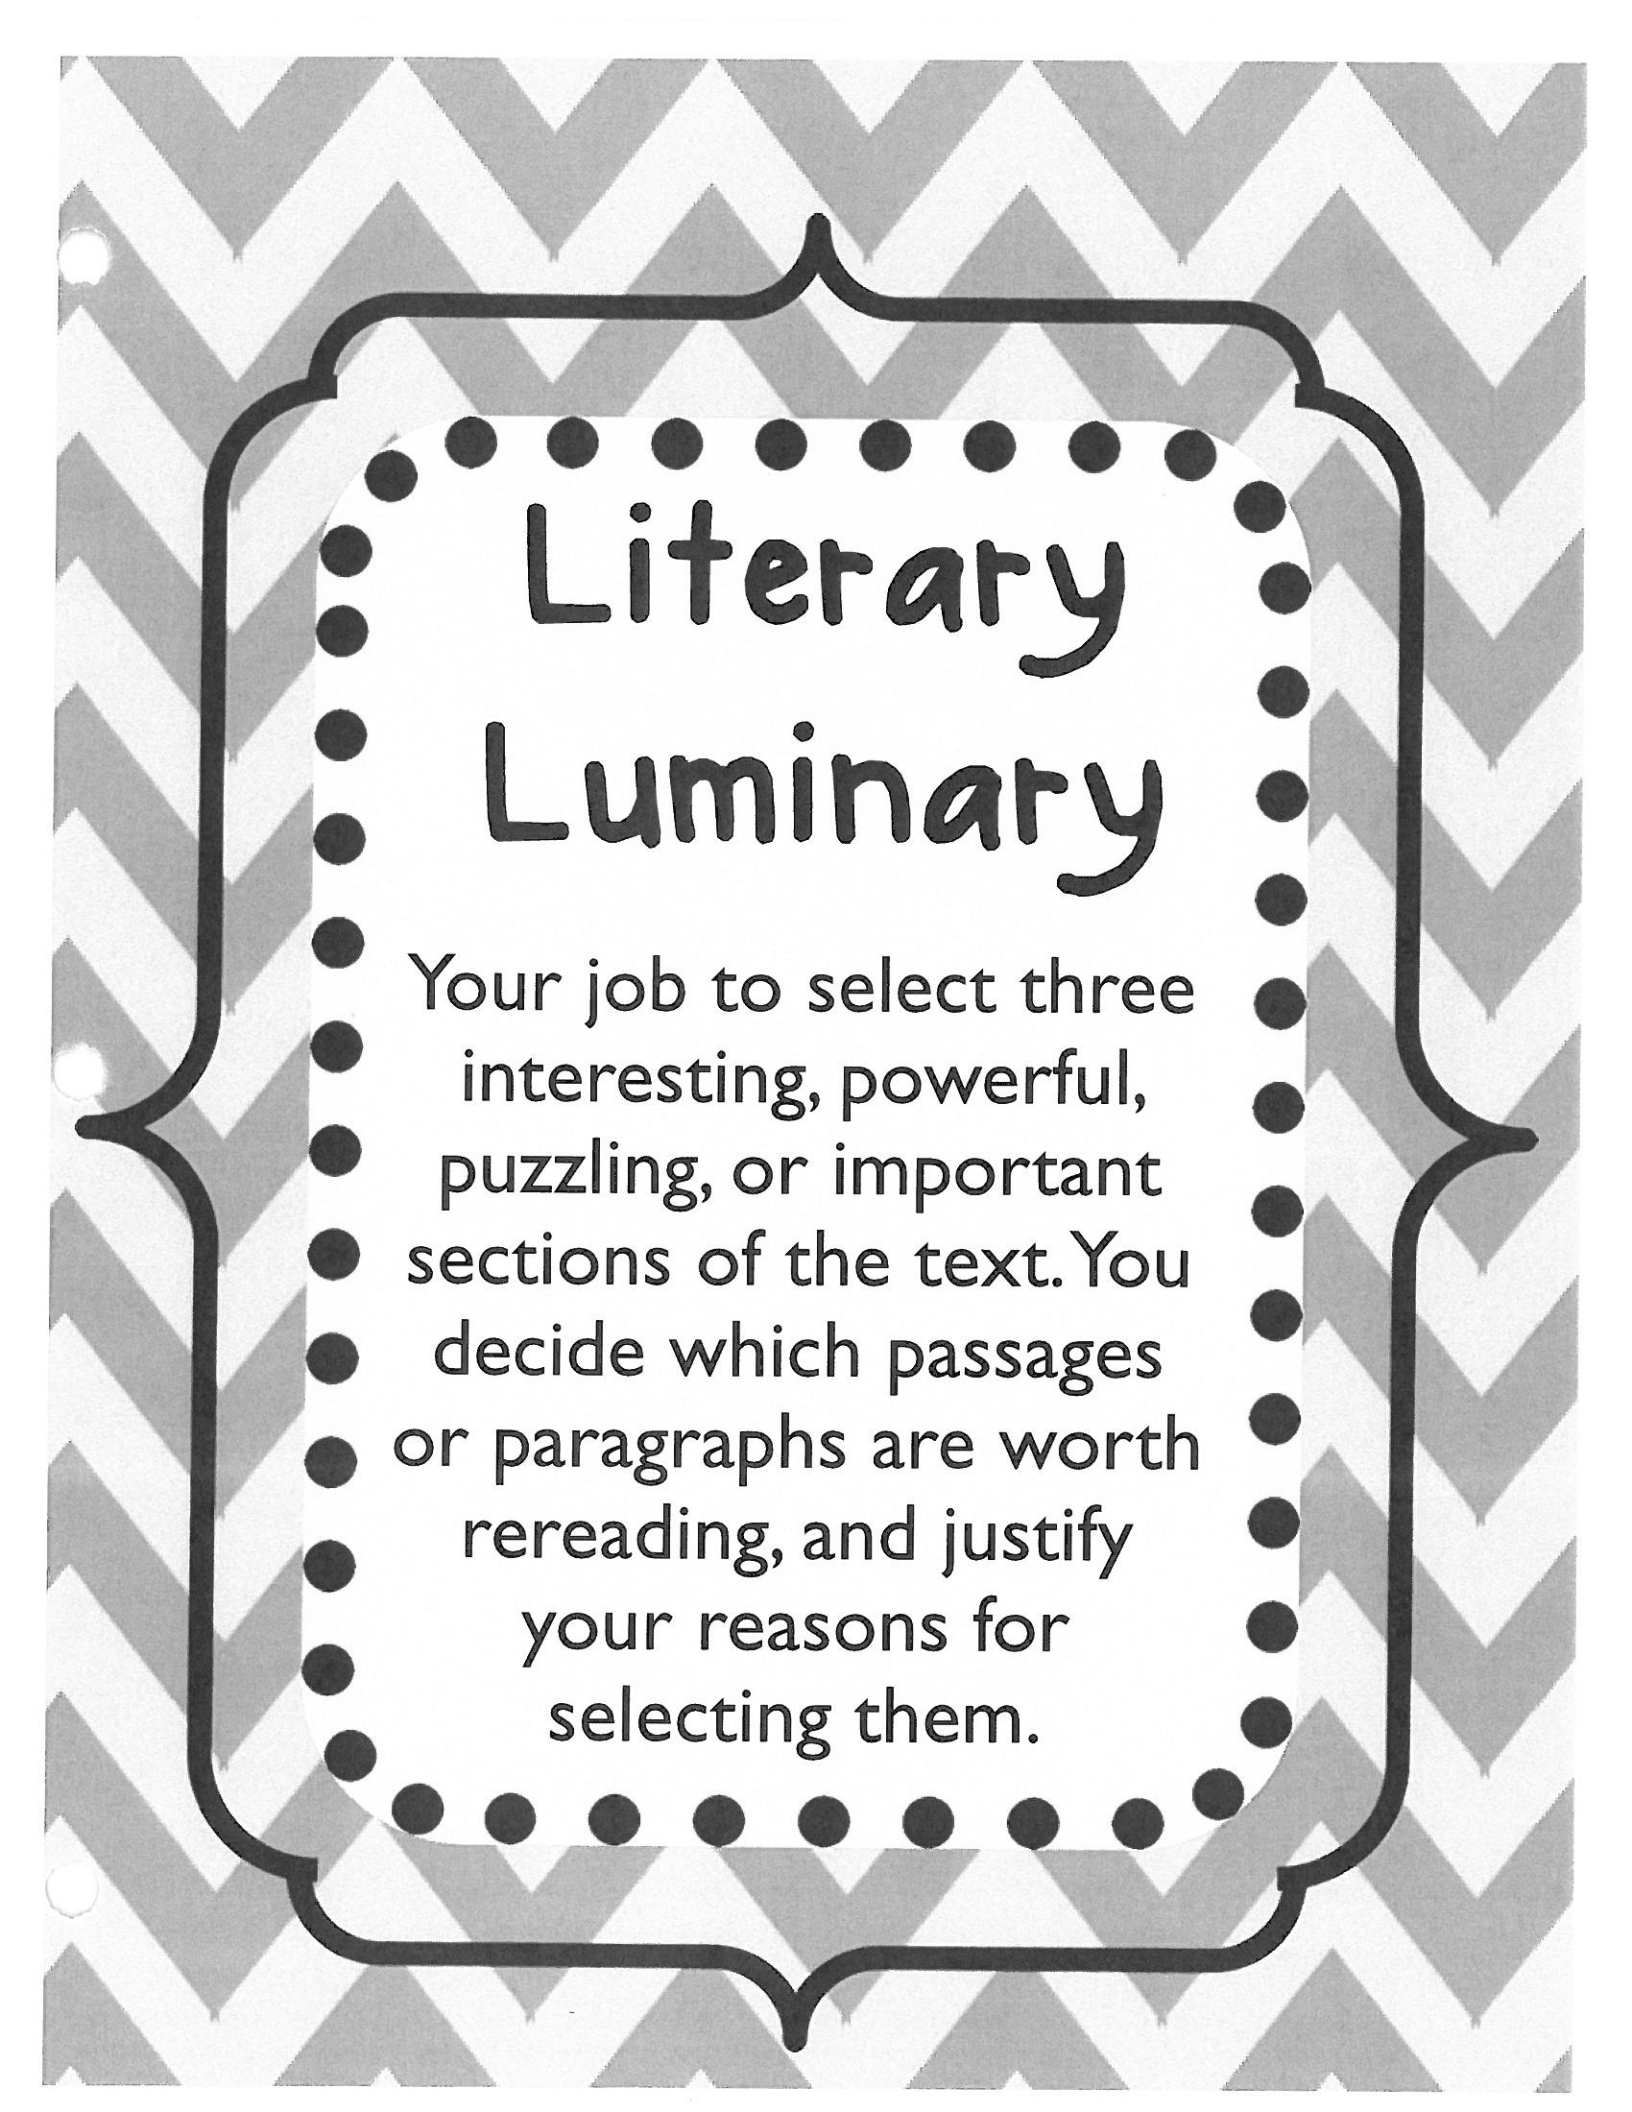

Your job is to make connections to your assigned text. Make a text-to-self, text-to-world, and text-to-text connection. Share your connections with your group.

Word Wizard

Your job is to pick at least two words from your assigned text that you do not know. Fill in the word graphic organizer and share the definitions with your group.

Literary Luminary

Your job to select three interesting, powerful, puzzling, or important sections of the text. You decide which passages or paragraphs are worth rereading, and justify your reasons for selecting them.

Travel Tracer

Your job is to trace the characters through the setting and their actions. Describe the setting and the characters. Explain how the characters have changed throughout the story.